COMPOSITION, COMMUNICATION, AND CREATIVE PROJECTS

The Noel Studio for Academic Creativity is an integrated support service for writing, communication, and research. In other words, we help you develop and improve your communication projects (e.g. essays, presentations, research papers, visual aids, etc.) during what we call consultations. Consultants are also prepared to help students at any stage in the communication-design process (brainstorming, outlining, organizing, etc.) and at any skill level (developmental, upper-level, etc.).

The Noel Studio offers synchronous (real-time) consultations for online and regional campus students who cannot reasonably be expected to attend face-to-face consultations in the Noel Studio.

Students may schedule an online consultation the same as they would a face-to-face consultation through WOnline or by calling the Noel Studio at (859) 622-7330 during regular operating hours.
